Big LOTTO MAX win for Stonewall mother and daughter

Shirley Morden and Carol Bucknell were shocked when they checked their LOTTO MAX ticket and discovered they won $333,333.40. The mother-daughter duo won on the December 22 draw.

"I checked the ticket three or four times on the WCLC mobile app," said Carol. "I thought my phone was acting up, so I restarted it and checked again."

"I was so shocked," she said. "I just couldn't believe it!"

Morden had a similar response to their win.

"I didn't believe it," said Morden. "I said that can't be true and told her she should check the ticket again."

The happy winners plan to use their winnings to paying off their farm.

Morden purchased their winning LOTTO MAX ticket at Stonewall Family Foods, located at 330 3rd Avenue South in Stonewall.
