$104K LOTTO MAX win for Elrose local!

"It's a bucket list item to go fishing in the ocean!"

SASKATOON (April 15, 2026) — Kevin Palmer won $104,739.70 on LOTTO MAX!

The Elrose local said he loves to play LOTTO MAX every draw and checks his numbers on WCLC's website over coffee on the weekends.

"I was doing my regular check of the winning numbers and was shocked to see mine!" he said.

"I told my wife, 'I think I won $104,000!' and my wife said, 'B*****t!'" he laughed. "I had to hand her the ticket and read the numbers off the website to convince her!"

Now that Palmer is certain his eyes aren't playing tricks on him, he is excitedly planning how he'll enjoy the windfall.

"I'm going to re-shingle the roof," he said. "Then I'm going to take two friends salmon and halibut fishing this summer!"

"It's a bucket list item to do this trip," he continued. "I've never gone fishing in the ocean before!"

Palmer said he's still in shock over the experience.

"It's pretty exciting," he said. "It's a big amount!"

Palmer purchased his winning LOTTO MAX ticket from Elrose Pharmacy at 206 Main St. in Elrose. He won his prize by matching six out of seven numbers selected in the March 20 draw, plus the bonus number: 2, 14, 25, 31, 36, 41, 47, and Bonus 13. Another winning ticket with the same selection was purchased somewhere in Ontario and split the prize.
