Calgarian wins $1.47M on LIGHTNING LOTTO!

A LIGHTNING LOTTO jackpot win worth $1,474,263.10 has struck in Calgary!

Laudiana Analiza discovered her life-changing win while purchasing her ticket at a local retailer.

"I was at the Shoppers Drug Mart checkout, and the cashier told me I'd won," she said. "It didn't click right away—I was still in denial and didn't say much!"

Once she returned to her vehicle and took another look at the ticket, the reality of the win began to sink in.

"I sat in my car and looked and realized the winning number was really there," she laughed. "In my mind I was like, 'Is this real?'"

The first person she shared the exciting news with was her daughter.

"She thought I was joking around until I showed her the ticket!"

Now, Analiza is looking forward to helping her family and making memories together.

"I would like to help my kids with their student loans. I'm also planning to go visit the Philippines with my husband and daughter for a vacation," she said. "I'd like to help my family as much as I can."

Analiza purchased her winning LIGHTNING LOTTO ticket from Shoppers Drug Mart at 2520 52 Street NE in Calgary. She won $1,474,263.10 instantly on the June 19 LIGHTNING LOTTO draw by matching all five numbers in the selection: 6, 9, 21, 26, and 32.
