Coalhurst local wins $1M on LOTTO 6/49!

Alexander Kurylowicz has won $1 million on LOTTO 6/49!

The Coalhurst local said he took the ticket in to Save-On Foods to check it, along with several other tickets he had been holding onto.

"I collect them for a while and then scan them all at once," he admitted. "This day I scanned about 20 tickets!"

One of those tickets stopped him in his tracks.

"I couldn't believe it when I saw the win," he said. "I did get a couple tears coming."

"I had the cashier double-check it and she said, 'Six zeroes!'" he laughed. "I just thought, 'Wow!'"

And Kurylowicz already knows exactly what he's going to do with his winnings.

"I'm going to invest in gold!" he smiled. "It's an interest of mine!"

"I'm also going to do some house renovations," he continued. "I'd like to put in a really nice bathroom."

Kurylowicz purchased his winning LOTTO 6/49 ticket from Save-On Foods at 401 Highlands Boulevard W in Lethbridge. He won his prize by matching the selection in the June 25 Gold Ball draw: 32525923-01, a white ball.
