$100,000 LOTTO MAX win in The Pas!

The Pas local takes home one of province's first new LOTTO MAX $100,000 prizes

Sterling Goulet was expecting a routine ticket check when he handed his LOTTO MAX ticket to a store clerk. Instead, he walked away with a story worth $100,000. Goulet won his $100,000 LOTTO MAX prize on the October 2 draw.

Like many players, Goulet brought his ticket to the store to see if it was a winner. The result caught him completely off guard.

"I was a bit freaked out!" he laughed.

As for plans for his windfall, Goulet said he already has a couple of practical plans in mind.

"I'm going to buy a vehicle and stock up on groceries," he said.

When asked how it feels to become a six-figure winner, Goulet summed it up simply: "It's very surprising!"

Goulet purchased his winning ticket from Esso The Pas, located at 120 Fischer Avenue in The Pas. He won his prize by matching one of the 70 $100,000 prize draws on the October 2 draw. His winning numbers were: 12, 17, 20, 22, 42, 44 and 50.
