Regina local wins $350,000 on THE BIGGER SPIN!

"It's extremely exciting to say that I actually won!"

REGINA (June 4, 2025) — Jim Wilcox is Saskatchewan's newest THE BIGGER SPIN winner! The Regina local was thrilled to discover THE BIGGER SPIN ticket he purchased won not only $10,000, but a date with THE BIGGER SPIN prize wheel LIVE and IN PERSON!

"It's extremely exciting to say that I actually won something," Wilcox said at the initial prize claim interview. "I'll probably be shaking like a leaf [when I step up to spin the wheel] -- It's a big adventure!"

"I thought it was $10,000 at first and was excited, then the cashier explained the wheel and I got REALLY excited!"

On June 3, Wilcox stepped up to THE BIGGER SPIN wheel and won a $350,000 prize!

After spinning and winning $350,000 in front of his family and friends, Wilcox said: "I'm going to retire comfortably!"

And the Regina winner has a few ideas brewing for his major windfall besides retirement.

"My lovely wife wants a new vehicle, so we may look at that too," Wilcox laughed. "She said when she saw me win, it was the biggest smile she's ever seen me smile!"

Wilcox purchased his winning THE BIGGER SPIN ticket at 7-Eleven located at 1106 Devonshire Dr. N in Regina.

How THE BIGGER SPIN works

THE BIGGER SPIN is a $10 instant ticket with one major difference: players can win cash prizes the same way as with a regular scratch ticket but can also uncover a 'Spin Win' which lets them discover their prize through an animated prize wheel at any Lotto Spot retailer. If the player's Spin Win prize is a "Bigger Spin", they win $10,000 PLUS a chance to spin a prize wheel that guarantees them at least another $200,000, and possibly up to $1 million!

Tickets for THE BIGGER SPIN are available at Lotto Spot retailers throughout the province.
