$100,000 POKER LOTTO win in Edson

Arnold Napoles was ecstatic to discover that he was about to be $100,000 wealthier. The Edson local's ticket exactly matched all five cards for the November 29 POKER LOTTO nightly draw.

Napoles purchased his ticket from the Chevron Edson OTR at 4204 2 Avenue in Edson on November 25.

A couple of days later, Napoles returned to the same store to check his ticket. He was shocked when he scanned it using the store's self-service ticket checker!

"I didn't believe it," Napoles said while claiming his prize. "I saw the zeroes, so I had to get it checked by the cashier to make sure."

The cashier took his ticket and confirmed his win by scanning it on the terminal.

"I went home, and I was jumping and dancing all over my house," he recalled. "My wife was so excited too."

The happy winner said his only plan for his windfall at the moment is to pay some bills.

"I'm so happy, thankful, and blessed," he added.

The winning cards drawn in the November 29 POKER LOTTO draw were
